The Chief Financial Officer will be responsible for the overall accounting function of the Working Title Films group of companies. The successful candidate will be an integral part of the senior management team reporting to the co-chairmen and working closely with the COO and Head of Production. The role will control a wide range of financial functions including management and statutory reporting, cash flow forecasting, tax accounting, overhead controls, financial modelling, banking arrangements and maintaining an overview of all production accounting. Ensuring that corporate and statutory requirements are met will be key. Excellent communication and management skills are essential as well as the ability to work in a fast dynamic environment on a wide variety of tasks with different levels of complexity. You should have a successful track record and commercial experience within a multinational in the entertainment, film or TV production industry, preferably having qualified in one of the 'big five' firms.
